

SCRUBBY RISE

When the late Greg Trott christened a flat, barren landscape at the front of our winery 'Scrubby Rise', he started a theme that things aren't always as they seem at Wirra Wirra. In keeping with Trott's laid back Aussie humour, today the vineyard is overlooked by a viewing platform known as 'The Jetty', while a well dressed gent in a red boat rows between the vines. The message is not to take life too seriously.

Vintage

2015

Region

Adelaide (Langhorne Creek, Currency Creek, Fleurieu Peninsula)

Grape Variety

Shiraz 65% Cabernet Sauvignon 35%

Colour

Deep plum with a bright crimson edge.

Bouquet

Bright, ripe raspberry and sweet mulberry fruits, laced with fragrant cabernet leaf and dried herbs.

Palate

Juicy red berries, ripe blue and black fruits as well as blood plum richness. The generous fleshy fruits are supported by supple tannins and provide a wine with great flavour, freshness and balance.

Drink

Drink now to 5 years.

Food Match

Lamb shoulder with Mediterranean spices, roast zucchini, squash and capsicum.

Vinification

Individual vineyard parcels were crushed and destemmed to stainless static red fermenters. Pumpovers were tailored daily, dependent upon levels of colour, flavour and tannin extraction. Once the desired levels were achieved the ferment was pressed off skins. Select parcels underwent maturation in seasoned French & American oak before blending.

Technical Details

pH 3.57 T.A. 6.1g/L ALC 14.5%

Winemakers

Paul Smith, Tom Ravech and Kelly Wellington
