Lots of black licorice, blackberry and blueberry aromas. Violet undertones. Medium to full body with very linear character that is fine and racy. Firm and linear tannins. Cool fruit tannins here. A beauty. Tight and racy. Drink or hold.

5 Stars & Top 5

RSW has long been one of the McLaren Vale region's leading shiraz wines and the 2014 is right on song. Intense dark fruit aromas are knitted through toasty oak and fruitcake spice. It's velvet smooth, with its substantial fruit character tempered by lovely fine-grained tannins and lipsmacking freshness. A satisfying shiraz for penne with Italian sausage, tomato and parmigiano.
