RESERVE MALBEC 2015

DECANTER WORLD WINE AWARDS

June 2016

Platinum Medal - Best Argentinian Malbec under £15 & 95 Points

Gorgeous nose exhibiting an array of aromas such as peppery mulberry, sour and black cherry, violet and a subtle touch of wild strawberry jam. The palate is full, complex, with a fantastic energy and bursting with ripe dark plums; tannins are impressively silky and freshness is amazing. An exceptional nectar from the Agrelo terroir.

Very Good to Excellent

A subtle but attractive nose with liqueur fruits. The palate offers rich berryfruits, hints of meaty gaminess and cut herb freshness, fine tannins giving structure with a bright acid lift, before finishing with a charming rusticity. A wee bit of a slow burner that grows and builds in the glass, offering very tasty drinking.

A rich, dense, youthful ruby garnet hue - not as saturated and deep as some malbecs can be. Ripe and jammy on the nose – plum jam and fruits of the forest maybe - carrying through to the fruit forward medium-bodied palate with smooth velvet-coated tannins, nutty oak, subtle nuances of chocolate, aniseed and tar and a well balanced savoury finish with a spicy flourish.
