OAK CASK SYRAH 2014

RAYMONDCHANWINERREVIEWS.CO.NZ

Raymond Chan, December 2015

100% Syrah from Los Arboles, Uco Valley and Cruz de Piedra, Maipu, fermented to 14.0% alc., the wine aged 9 months in seasoned American oak. Dark, deep, ruby-red colour with slight purple hues, youthful in appearance. The nose is soft and subdued with straightforward, light aromas of ripe dark raspberry fruit with hints of spice and pepper. Medium-bodied, this has an up-front, moderately sweet and flavoursome palate of dark red berry fruits and raspberry jam. The tannin extraction is modest, but shows with dry textures as the fruit recedes. Lacy acidity carries the raspberry fruit notes to a light finish. This is an up-front, moderately juicy Syrah with a light, dry finish. Serve with pasta, pizza and barbecued fare over the next 2 years.

4 Stars & 88 Points

It is beautifully ripe and fragrant on the nose displaying dark plum, blueberry, game and black pepper notes with a touch of spice complexity. The palate offers generous fruit richness and silky texture, finishing long and flavoursome with savoury nuances. At its best: now to 2018.
