4.5 Stars & 91 Points

Silky smooth and beautifully rounded, this stylish pinot shows lifted aromas of dark cherry, game, earthy mushroom and cedar on the nose. The palate offers attractive fruit flavours combined with savoury undertones, making it a fabulous wine to partner slow-cooked dishes. At its best: now to 2019.

Awatere Valley pinots have a lift and verve that is distinctive. Fragrant, vivid, with plenty of tight fruit power and a juicy flow, this wine is an excellent example of what the sub-region can do. The oak influence is deftly-pitched. This pinot would be great at a picnic with bacon and egg pie.
