SELECCIÓN RAVENTOS BRUT NV

WINEORBIT.CO.NZ

Sam Kim, March 2016

5 Stars & 93 Points

An impressively complex and engaging Cava showing medley of ripe stone fruit, rockmelon, lemon peel and oatmeal characters on the nose, followed by a concentrated palate that is both silky and refreshing. Beautifully composed and immensely appealing.

Very fresh bouquet of white flowers and white peaches, plenty of autolysis and a light toasty quality add complexity, depth and charm. On the palate – Fresh, dry, flavourful – in fact delicious! White peach, white strawberry and a hint of pineapple alongside the notable autolysis combine to present a wine with charm and some elegance, balanced and well made.

While cava seems to be losing out to prosecco these days, this is a very classy, well-made Spanish fizz, with – dare I say it – a champagne-style palate.
