

Reviews & Accolades

STONE TERRACES 2015

DEREKSMEDLEYMW.CO.UK

Derek Smedley MW, May 2017

---

98 Points

Fragrant the nose has fresh bramble and bilberry the start of the palate quite light and refined. Depth of fruit in the middle the rich sweet black fruits backed by liquorice the concentrated fruit underpinned by exotic spices lighter at the back understated the finish has concentration yet finesse.

WINE SPECTATOR

James Molesworth, August 2017

---

96 Points

Flattering, with a gorgeous, seductive and showy display of warm plum sauce, blueberry reduction and chocolate-covered acai berry flavors rushing forth. Light milk chocolate and black licorice notes check in through the finish, which is juicy and open in feel. Best from 2028 through 2040.

WINE ENTHUSIAST

Roger Voss, October 2017

---

95 Points & Top 100 Cellar Selection of 2017

An elegant wine with beautifully integrated tannins, this is concentrated as well as fruity. Its structure and blackberry fruits are sweet and ripe. The perfumes of this wine leave a stylish, fragrant aftertaste. Drink from 2027.

RICHARDMAYSON.COM

Richard Mayson, July 2017

---

18.5 / 20 Points (Cask sample)

A wine from three small plots of vineyard in a narrow curving valley on the Malvedos estate. None of the plots faces south which proved advantageous in a hot, dry year like 2015. Very low yields: less than 1kg per vine. Wonderfully aromatic (reflecting the high percentage of Touriga Nacional) with a classic floral character but closing in on itself after a couple of days; soft, rich and opulent on the palate with broad-structured tannins building in the mouth and leading to a ripe, complete finish. Very accomplished wine.

JAMESSUCKLING.COM

James Suckling, May 2017

---

93 Points

This is a single vineyard port from the farm of Quinta do Malvedos. Smells like ink with a dark and earthy aroma. Spicy. Dried flowers. Full and rich with slightly drier edge to this. Nice finish with dusty tannins. A beauty already... This really grows on you. Long finish.